GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue Stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided. Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, petition, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other offices duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time de-signated, are subject to stamp duty as Promisory

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties. ancelled by one of the parties.
In conveyances of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value the estate on interest conveyed. No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such a case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgement of the instrument which is not stamped.

" Mean " or " Poor Whites " and Mulattoes. The Southern newspapers, which to represent the late slave holding aristocracy, are loud in their professions of attachment to President John, and yet they lose no opportunity to insult him by sneers at what they designate the "mean or poor whites." They are well aware that President Johnson, more than any man in the South, is the representative of the poor non-slaveholding whites. He boasts on all occasions of his humble origin, and of his rise in the world in spite of the frowns of the aristocracy; and yet the Southern editors and politicians of the secession school take every occasion to throw contempt upon the poor whites. This, however, may be the result of long habit, of which the chivalry have not yet been able to break themselves. We must remind them that they never asperse the late lovalist convention as being composed of mean or poor whites without heaping insult upon the man
